

Marsh Creek 135-Meakim

Saturday, August 29, marked the start of the 2009 Marsh Creek 135 lb. season. Coach Meakim's team traveled to Pennridge and suffered a disappointing 22-0 defeat. Ian Riehl led the way for the Eagles with 47 yards rushing, running behind the blocking of the offensive line of Matt Ruff, Tom Logan, Mark Marx, Carter Crowley, Adam Bernhdt and Greg Hoffman. Coach Bob Ruff's defense played well despite the final score as Nick Holowsko, Ryan Hummel, John Belbin, Brooks Bradshaw, Cam Warren, Carson White and Justin Cohen played very solid. Riehl had an interception and Cohen also had a fumble recovery.

Quarterbacks Kevin Meakim Jr, Cody Amrogi and Mike Ruff all completed passes in Coach Meakim's spread offense with Ambrogi to Meakim covering 23 yards on one of the pass plays. Jeff Kiley, Cohen, Jake Wallace and Joe Mazur all caught passes.

Matt Young, Chaz Lucas-Murphy and Brandon Feamster all rushed for positive yards behind the blocking of Eddie Leimkuhler, Devlin Lynch, Ryan Hassing, Alec Althouse, Andrew Milano, Nolan Stone and Daniel Speranzini. Ten different players ran the ball as Coach Meakim got everyone involved throughout the contest.

The Eagles are working hard preparing for next week's battle against the Lansdale Cannoneers at Hickory Park.
